

Anger at missing PCSO situation

Both East Keswick and Bardsey Parish Councils are concerned that the villages have seemingly been left without a PCSO and not been informed about it. It's understood that the recently appointed PCSO for the villages has resigned. Natalie Westwood was the replacement for Louise Lodge in late September. However her resignation from the force leaves the village without a designated PCSO and the Parish Councils are seeking urgent clarification of the issue and a named replacement.